SMITH NUMBER

Nearly everyone of old colonial ancestry finds lurking somewhere in the leafage of his family tree a Smith or two. In some lineages the Smiths are numerous.

Over the years I have worked on many Smith problems. In my files are three large folders bulging with Smiths. A few years ago, the idea occurred to me that it would be useful to many people to arrange in family sequence those Smith families on which I have collected considerable data. Two factors have deterred me: lack of time and the realization that, extensive though my material is, it is very far from complete on any of these Smith families. No family is brought completely down to 1800 or even to 1750. There are gaps and missing branches and unsolved problems. Despite these defects, I have decided to put my idea to the test, believing that many will welcome the data I am able to give, and that the very fact of publication may stimulate others who have additional data and I fear corrections to offer, to put them in shape to supplement the data here given.

On the Jamaica, Long Island, Smiths I was aided in 1936 by a discussion of some problems with Mr. Arthur S. Wardwell of Brooklyn, N. Y., and with Mr. Herbert F. Seversmith of Washington, D. C. More recently, Mr. Moses Bigelow of Newark, N. J., kindly submitted his own collections of data relating to the Jamaica Smiths, from which I culled a few items previously missed. However, the arrangement of the data into family groups is my own and I am solely responsible for any errors of fact or judgment.

With regard to the Milford Smiths, I am under great obligation to the late George Clarke Bryant of Ansonia, Conn., and owe it to him that the local Milford branches are so completely filled out.

To save space and to crowd in as much information as possible, we present the data in condensed form and cite records only when essential. While corrections and supplemental matter will be welcomed, the compiler cannot spare the time from professional work to discuss questions that may be raised, and has already donated all the time he can afford to the ubiquitous Smiths.

JOHN SMITH OF MESPAT

1. John<sup>1</sup> Smith, of Taunton, Mass., moved 1643 to Mespas, Long Island, and was killed by the Indians; married ———.

Deposition made 24 May 1703: "Samuel Smith of Jamaica, aged about 67, & Elizabeth wife of Nehemiah Smith of same place, formerly wife of William Ludlam decd., of Southampton, in Suffolk on Long Island, aged about 70 depose that about 60 years ago John Smith, father of these deponents living at Taunton in Plymouth Colony.... left his habitation & went to Mashpate Kills in Queen's County.... & was there killed by the Indians. These deponents also say that John Smith, eldest son of ye said John Smith, their father, & brother to these deponents, is now living at Hempstead in Queen's County on Long Island."

The wife of John has often been identified erroneously as Jane who afterward married Robert Coe, but she was actually wife of Bartholomew Smith [q.v.], and we have not identified the wife of John.

Children:

- 2     1. John<sup>2</sup>, of Hempstead, called "Jr." and "Blue" to distinguish him from other John Smiths of Hempstead. This John was b. by 1630 and perhaps as early as 1624, and was living 1710; m. (Sarah?) Strickland, or more properly Stickland, dau. of John of Hempstead and Jamaica. He was a shoemaker; Constable of Hempstead, 1676, and delegate to the Governor, 1677. John Smith "Jr." of Hempstead sold a horse in 1665 to "Mores" (Morris) Smith of Jamaica. Issue, not traced herein.
- 3     ii. Elizabeth, b. ca. 1633; alive 1703; m. (1) ca. 1653, William Ludlam of Southampton; m. (2) by 1688, Nehemiah Smith (No. 7, William Smith of Jamaica, q.v.).
- 4     iii. Samuel, b. ca. 1635; d. 1715.
- 5     iv. Morris.

4. Samuel<sup>2</sup> Smith, born ca. 1635, died at Jamaica, between 14 Mar. 1714/15 (will) and 20 May 1715 (probate). He was granted a house lot in Jamaica, 1656; Constable, 1680, and then called "Sr." He sold with wife Mary in 1692; no wife named in his will.

Children:

- 6 i. John<sup>3</sup>, b. (say 1660); m. Ruth —, who was bur. at Jamaica, 9 June 1712. Children (record incomplete, based on wills of brother Daniel and dau. Damaris):
  1. John<sup>4</sup>.
  2. Edward.
  3. Ruth.
  4. Damaris, b. ca. 1704; d. 30 May 1767 ae. 63; m. 26 May 1723, Henry Ludlam.
  5. Elizabeth, name still Smith in 1767.
  6. Jemima, bp. 18 Oct. 1711; m. — Knox.
- 7 ii. Amos, b. (say 1662); d. between 16 June 1712 (will) and 6 Jan. 1712/13 (probate), Jamaica; m. ca. 1688, Mary —. It has been stated that he m. (1) Mary Moss and (2) Mary Roe; not verified. Children:
  1. Amos<sup>4</sup>, said to have m. Abigail Skidmore of Huntington; not verified.
  2. Daniel, a saddler, had a son John.
  3. Mary.
  4. Elizabeth.
  5. David.
  6. Samuel, b. ca. 1701; res. Huntington; m. 6 June 1732, Esther Wickes, dau. of Nathaniel and Phoebe (Jarvis) Wickes; had a son Daniel.
  7. Solomon, had a wife Martha and son Amos.
- 8 iii. Daniel, b. ca. 1664; d. at Jamaica, 1754; will dated 14 July 1753 in his 90th yr., proved 21 Oct. 1754; m. Abigail —. No issue.
- 9 iv. Samuel, living 1753; no family proved, but the names of the children suggest that he was the Samuel with wife Hannah who had the following children rec. Jamaica:
  1. Samuel<sup>4</sup>, bp. 23 July 1710.
  2. Mary, bp. 19 Oct. 1712.
  3. Deborah, bur. 15 Feb. 1717.
  4. Daniel, bp. 14 Apr. 1717.
  5. Sarah, bp. 8 Nov. 1719.

(Note: Samuel<sup>3</sup> Smith, No. 15, William Smith of Jamaica family, is supposed to be the Samuel who m. Hannah Denton and had an only surviving son Samuel, and these children could belong to him except that his son Samuel was apparently older than the one bp. 1710.)
- 10 v. Mary.
- 11 vi. Sarah.
- 12 vii. Deborah, m. — Wood.
- 13 viii. Alice.

5. Morris<sup>2</sup> Smith, of Jamaica 1656, moved to Flushing; married Bethia —. They had seven children entered in the Friends' Records: Morris<sup>3</sup>, b. 19 Mar. 1664/5; Abraham, b. 28 Sept. 1667, d. May 1688; Isaac, b. 14 Feb. 1668/9, d. 21 Apr. 1689; Jacob, b. 20 Dec. 1671; Mary, b. 19 Nov. 1674; Martha, b. 19 May 1677; and John, b. 10 Apr. 1680. This branch not traced further.

---

1. Bartholomew<sup>2</sup> Smith, of Huntington, Long Island, living 1659; married Jane ———. She married second, Edward Rouse, who died in 1672, and third, by license dated 15 Feb. 1674/5, Robert Coe.

We consider Bartholomew of the second generation because he was quite likely son of the early William<sup>1</sup> Smith of Hempstead and elder brother of Abraham<sup>2</sup> of Hempstead and Jamaica. By this supposition, he named his eldest son William for his father, and a son Abraham for his brother.

Bartholomew bought land at Huntington from the Indians, 1659. In 1692, William Smith of Foster's Meadow, Hempstead, conveyed land in Huntington as eldest son of "Bertellmew" Smith, deceased, of Huntington.

Robert Coe and Jane his wife, and William Smith their son, all of Jamaica, sold land at Jamaica to Edward Higby, 2 Nov. 1677; and 5 Jan. 1684/5 Higby sold land which he "is to have of William Smith of Fosters Midowe by covenant for and in behalfe of his brother Abraham Smith." On 5 May 1685, William Smith of Fosters Meadow in Hempstead sold land in Jamaica with his wife Hannah, excepting what had already been sold to Edward Higby.

On 28 June 1679, Robert Coe of Jamaica conveyed land and housing in Jamaica to his son-in-law [step-son] John Smith of Jamaica, in return for maintenance of himself and wife, and Mrs. Jane Coe is called mother of the said John Smith; Abraham Smith was a witness. Robert Coe of Jamaica conveyed land, 26 June 1679, to Abraham Smith of Jamaica. Robert Coe and Jane his wife conveyed, 9 June 1687, to "oure Son John Smith late of Jemeco," a house and 50 acres at Foster's Meadow, Hempstead.

It is clear from the above records that Mrs. Jane Coe was widow of Bartholomew Smith, since she was mother of William, John and Abraham, the son William was specifically of Foster's Meadow, Hempstead, and it was that William who sold the Huntington land as eldest son of Bartholomew Smith. Robert Coe, Puritan, edited by J. Gardner Bartlett, identifies Jane as widow of John Smith from Taunton who was killed at Mespit in 1643 [see our account of that family, page 66]. That John Smith, however, was not the father of William, proved by record to be Jane's son. The mistake in the Coe book was caused by misinterpreting a deposition made in 1701 by one Johanna Coe who testified that she was present at the birth of a child of Mrs. Elizabeth Ludlam, this Elizabeth being a proved daughter of John Smith from Taunton. But Johanna Coe does not describe herself as mother of Elizabeth; Johanna is not usually identical with the name Jane; and Elizabeth's mother if living in 1701 should have been close to 95 years of age. There is no evidence that Robert Coe's wife Jane long survived 1687 and the Johanna Coe of the 1701 deposition was probably wife of his son John Coe.

The son, Abraham Smith, finished his career in Middletown, Conn., where he died without issue prior to 1734 when certain of his heirs gave a deed and powers of attorney. For the discovery of these evidences we are indebted to Mr. William Herbert Wood.

3 Feb. 1734: Whereas Abraham Smith late of Middletown was possessed of land in the Town of Middletown....his estate did come unto his brothers and their issue....we Thomas Flewelling eldest son and Robert Flewelling one other son of Hannah Flewelling alias Hannah Smith, daughter of William Smith, brother to sd Abraham Smith, and David Brundige and wife Hannah and Jonath<sup>n</sup> Brundige and wife Jane, which Hannah and Jane are sisters to sd Thomas and Robert Flewelling and daughters of sd Hannah Flewelling alias Hannah Smith, and all Coheirs with John Smith of Coram in Co. Suffolk, N. Y., who was a brother's son of sd Abraham Smith of Middletown dec'd....convey to William Willet and John Thomas, both of Rye, N. Y. Witnesses: Thomas Phillips, Sam<sup>l</sup> Cornell, Sam<sup>l</sup> Brundige.

On the next pages are recorded two instruments, one dated 4 May 1734, from Benjamin Hall, carpenter, of Hempstead, Queens Co., N. Y., and Phebe his wife, appointing Abraham Flewelling of Flushing their attorney in the Colony of Connecticut; the other, dated 2 May 1734, from Ephraim Golding of Hempstead, feltmaker, and Catherine his wife, giving similar power to John Flewelling. Whether these were other Flewelling heirs, or representatives of John Smith of Coram, we have not inquired.

Children:

- 2 i. William<sup>2</sup>, eldest son, was of Jamaica 1677; of Foster's Meadow, Hempstead, by 1684; living 1692; m. Hannah ———. Child:
  1. Hannah<sup>3</sup>, m. a Flewelling, and was mother at least of the children named in the deed above.
- 3 ii. John, had land in Jamaica, 1668, then described as "Rouse" from his step-father's name; of Jamaica 1679 and 1683; "late of Jamaica" 1687 when he received a homestead in Hempstead; on 28 June 1690 was described in Hempstead records as of "St. Johns in Kent Co. on Dover River, Pa." On 22 Jan. 1682/3, Samuel Mills of Jamaica deeded to his son-in-law John Smith of Jamaica, usually considered to be John<sup>3</sup> Smith, No. 12, William Smith of Jamaica family, q.v., but possibly this John. He had issue, at least:
  1. John<sup>3</sup>, of Coram, L.I. Branch not traced further; see record data above.
- 4 iii. Abraham, of Jamaica, 1679; d. at Middletown, Conn., before 1734, without surviving issue.

WILLIAM SMITH OF JAMAICA

1. William<sup>1</sup> Smith, born after 1600, died after Jan. 1663/4 and some time before 1670; married Magdalen —, who married second, by 1670, Capt. Richard Olmstead of Norwalk, Conn.

He was a magistrate at Weymouth, Mass., 1638-43, and was of Rehoboth, Mass., about 1643-51. He settled in Huntington, Long Island, where he was a magistrate, Dec. 1661, and inventoried an estate, Jan. 1661/2. Soon after he moved to Jamaica, L. I., where house lots were granted to "William Smith & his son Nehemiah Smith," 11 Jan. 1663/4. He did not long survive that date, for on 6 Sept. 1670 Magdalen Olmstead of Norwalk, late wife of William Smith of Jamaica, deceased, gave her housing in Jamaica to her sons Wait Smith and Samuel; and Samuel Smith assigned his share to "my brother Wait Smith." The will of Richard Olmstead, made 30 Sept. 1684, gave to Samuel Smith "the bed that was my last wife's."

At Huntington in 1684, Thomas Smith, Joseph Smith, Nehemiah Smith, and Wait Smith confirmed land there as children of William Smith now deceased, formerly of Huntington; Daniel Denton and Joseph Smith, Jr., witnessed.

Benjamin Smith of Milford, Conn., at his first marriage there in 1660, was described as son of William Smith of Huntington. It will be noted that Benjamin named sons Samuel, Joseph and Nehemiah; and that his brother Thomas named a son Benjamin.

Thomas Smith, Sr., of Jamaica, in his will in 1689 called himself 62 or 63 years old and referred to Nehemiah Smith as his brother.

Joseph Smith is mentioned in Huntington records, for he took an inventory there in 1661, and in 1663 reference is made to a lot "Formerly Joseph Smith's." He appears in Jamaica records, 14 Feb. 1663, and was Townsman there, 22 Dec. 1663. On 14 Jan. 1714, Joseph Smith, Sr., of Jamaica, made an agreement with Nathan, Wait and Caleb Smith of Jamaica, to divide a lot, and Joseph was to have the west side and the other three the east side; in the contemporary index this is called "An agreement between Joseph Smith and ye sons of Wait Smith." Beneath the agreement is entered a release from Magdalen Smith of Jamaica, stating that "my husband William Smith" resigned with her consent the land "that my husband William Smith & my son Joseph Smith bought of Henry Whitney unto my son Joseph Smith afore said." This release was doubtless given before 1670, since Magdalen was still named Smith, and by 1670 she was "Olmstead" and she had died before Olmstead made his will in 1684.

In 1668 Winthrop's Medical Journal mentions Ruth wife of Joseph Smith of Jamaica and calls him brother of "Goody" Higby. Nehemiah Smith called John Carpenter his cousin [nephew], making it likely that Hannah wife of John<sup>2</sup> Carpenter was a daughter of William Smith.

- 34 xii. Ebenezer, bp. 31 Jan. 1691/2; d. 1763.

5. Joseph<sup>2</sup> Smith, born [say 1637], perhaps died at Jamaica in 1732; married Ruth Beardsley, born about 1635 to 1640, daughter of William Beardsley of Stratford, Conn.; perhaps married second, Mary _____.

He was Townsman of Jamaica, 1663. In 1668 Winthrop called his wife Ruth. On 31 Oct. 1719, Joseph Smith of Jamaica conveyed to Nathan Beardsley of Stratford land in Stratford set to my mother Mrs. Ruth Smith in the distribution of the estate of Capt. John Beardsley. This of course was Joseph, Jr. He is not called "Jr." in the 1719 deed, and it is a question whether he conveyed the inheritance from his mother prior to the death of his father, who would have a courtesy title therein.

Joseph Smith, Jr., was probably born by 1665, as he witnessed the Huntington deed of his father in 1684, and was Constable in 1692. He appears as "Jr." in Jamaica records in 1697 and 1707, and on 26 Nov. 1700 conveyed land with his wife Mary.

Joseph, Sr., was living in 1714 when he made an agreement with the sons of his brother Wait, but no record of his death has been found. He is generally supposed to be the Joseph Smith whose will, 25 Feb. 1730, was proved 29 Mar. 1732. This will has serious discrepancies in the abstracts given by Pelletreau and in the New York Wills. It named wife Mary; son Joseph; grandchildren Elias and Mary Bayles, children of daughter Ruth Bayles; grandsons Joseph Smith and Samuel Smith; cousins Nehemiah Smith and Samuel Smith, Jr., executors.

It is clear that if this was the will of Joseph, Sr., he must have lived to be close to 95 years old. He must also have had a second wife Mary, but as already mentioned, Joseph "Jr." had a wife Mary in 1700. Since George McNish was named as grandson in the will, the "Mrs." Mary Smith who married 12 Aug. 1713 George McNish and had a son George was undoubtedly daughter of the 1732 testator. Even if 25 at marriage and born 1688, this Mary Smith could have been daughter of Joseph, Jr., who as we have shown was probably born by 1665. This is also true of Ruth wife of Elias Bayles who, by the terms of the will, was also a daughter of the 1732 testator.

Hence two views are possible. One is that Joseph Sr. survived to 1732; that by his first wife Ruth he had a son Joseph Jr.; and that he had a second wife Mary, who was mother of Mary and Ruth. There is a marriage license entered for a Joseph Smith and Maria Bedloo, 3 Nov. 1690, and if this first theory is correct, this record may pertain to the second marriage of Joseph, Sr., though it may have no connection with any Joseph of the Jamaica family.

The second view is that Joseph Sr. died between 1714 and 1719, leaving a son Joseph Jr. by his wife Ruth, and having no probate; that Joseph Jr. married Mary and died 1732, being "Sr." at the time of his death. There is evidence that a Joseph Smith married Mary Matthews, a daughter of Samuel Matthews of Jamaica and his wife who was a daughter of John Stickland. The will of Samuel Matthews in 1695 named his daughter Mary and her children Samuel, Ruth and Joseph, surname not stated. But in 1700 a power of attorney was given by Joseph Smith and Mary his wife relative to Matthews property in Hopewell, N. J. It is clear that Mary Matthews was not the second wife of Joseph Smith, Sr., for she had a son Joseph, and he already had a son Joseph by his wife Ruth. But she could have been, and probably was, the wife of Joseph Smith, Jr., and the daughter Ruth was named for his mother, Ruth Beardsley.

We incline to the second view, but it is then necessary to suppose that Joseph Jr. had also a daughter Mary not born before the date of the Matthews will in 1695, but born very shortly thereafter, which would make her nearly 18 years old at marriage to McNish in 1713. We have presented such evidence as we have been able to find, and pending the discovery of further evidence, leave the question open.

Joseph followed his mother to Norwalk, Conn., for a short time, for in 1675 he bought land there, calling himself lately of Long Island.

Child by Ruth Beardsley:

- 35     1. Joseph<sup>3</sup>, b. by 1665; probably the Joseph who was Lieut. of the Jamaica Company, 1715; perhaps the testator of 1730 and if so, d. 1732; probably m. Mary Matthews, see above, and if so, certainly had the first three children named below; the fourth also belongs to him if he was the 1732 testator:

1. Samuel<sup>4</sup>. If his grandfather was the 1732 testator, he was then living; if it was his father who d. 1732, he had probably d. s.p. before 1730, the date of the will.
2. Ruth, m. ca. 1720, Elias Bayles, Jr., if her father was the 1732 testator; but if it was her grandfather who d. 1732, the history of this Ruth is not known and it was a daughter of Joseph Sr. by a second wife Mary who m. Bayles.
3. Joseph. In 1735 Joseph Smith, Gent., with wife Amy conveys land lately in occupation of his father, Joseph Smith, Sr., deceased. This applies to this Joseph if his father d. 1732; but if it was this Joseph's grandfather who d. 1732, then the deed belongs to his father who in that case had a second wife Amy.
4. Mary, b. (say 1695-6); m. 12 Aug. 1713, Rev. George McNish. But this child and her marriage are placed here on the hypothesis that it was Joseph Jr. who d. 1732, otherwise she must be placed with a Ruth as daughters of Joseph Sr. by a second wife.

7. Nehemiah<sup>2</sup> Smith, born at Weymouth, Mass., 2 Oct. 1641, died (probably at Jamaica, L. I.), after 1723; married first, at Hempstead, 3 Feb. 1667/8, Sarah Puddington, probably born about 1648, step-daughter of Robert Jackson of Hempstead; married second, by 1688, Elizabeth (Smith) Ludlam, born about 1633, living 1703, daughter of John Smith of Mespat [q.v.], and widow of William Ludlam.

He was granted a house lot in Jamaica with his father William, January, 1663/4. He married his second wife before February, 1687/8, when she conveyed as Elizabeth Smith to her son Joseph Ludlam. In 1723 Nehemiah conveyed for love to his nephew Nehemiah, son of his brother Wait, all his property in Jamaica, including his homestead. Hence there is no probate of his estate, and it may safely be assumed that he left no surviving issue.

9. Wait<sup>2</sup> Smith, born [say 1645], living 1709, died perhaps before 1714; married first, _____; married second, about 1683, Phebe Ashman, daughter of Robert Ashman.

He received land in Jamaica from his mother Magdalen Olmstead and bought out his brother Samuel's right.

Children by first wife:

1749 (will) and 30 Nov. 1755 (probate); m. Martha

10. Samuel<sup>2</sup> Smith, born [say 1649], died at Norwalk, Conn., between 8 May 1730 (will) and 18 Nov. 1745 (probate); married Rachel Marvin, baptized 30 Dec. 1649, daughter of Matthew and Mary Marvin. If he died shortly before his will was proved, he must have lived to be almost and perhaps more than 95 years old. He was apparently the youngest son, and accompanied his mother to Norwalk upon or following her second marriage.

Children:

- 44 i. Rachel<sup>3</sup>, b. (say 1677); m. at Norwalk, 13 May 1697, Ens. Thomas Benedict, son of Thomas and Mary (Messenger) Benedict.
- 45 ii. Sarah, d. before 1730; m.

- 49 vi. Nehemiah, b. (say 1689); d. 1757.
- 50 vii. Ruth, b. (say 1692); m. at Ridgefield, 5 Nov. 1713, Jonah Keeler.

11. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Smith, born by 1660, died at Jamaica by 1727; married Rachel _____.

He had a deed from his father, 24 Feb. 1680; bought land 27 Jan. 1681/2, then called "Jr."; bought from [his brother] Nathaniel Smith in 1695; witnessed a deed with Rachel Smith, 1702; sold 20 acres from his father Thomas Smith for "one shilling" to Jeremiah Smith, felt maker, 26 Apr. 1709; and on 20 May 1709 as "eldest son and heir to Thomas Smith" quitclaimed to John Smith, Jr., weaver. On 27 Mar. 1727, Israel Smith sold land laid out to his father, Thomas Smith, dec'd. From this last fact, and from the wills of Israel and Rachel below, we learn the children.

The compiler does not feel entirely satisfied with the placing of this family. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Smith was the eldest son of Thomas<sup>2</sup>, and the deeds indicate that he was born probably 1659 or earlier; yet the children below, who were children of a Thomas, were born about or after 1700. It is entirely possible that he married at a later age than was usual. It might be possible to theorize that Thomas<sup>3</sup> was born as early as 1650, which would enable him to have a son Thomas born about 1675, and it could then be the later Thomas who had the following children. In that event, Thomas<sup>3</sup> may have died about 1709 and the deeds of that year were made by his son, Thomas, and the son Thomas would be the one who died by 1727. But nothing has been seen in the records enabling us to discriminate between the Thomases or justifying the insertion of an extra generation.

Children:

- 51 i. Israel<sup>4</sup>, a physician; d. unm. between 9 Oct. 1733 (will) and 9 Apr. 1734 (probate).
- 52 ii. Rachel, d. unm. at Jamaica, between 6 Dec. 1743 (will) and 16 Apr. 1747 (probate).
- 53 iii. Hannah, m. George Woolsey, who d. 1762, N.J.
- 54 iv. Judith, b. (say 1700); m. between 1732 and 1736, as his second wife, Rev. John Pierson, b. ca. 1689, d. at Hanover, N.J., 23 Aug. 1770 ae. 81, Yale Coll. 1711.
- 55 v. Kezia, b. ca. 1703; d. 2 Nov. 1779; m. Jasper Smith of Maidenhead, N.J., b. ca. 1701, d. Sept. 1754.

12. John<sup>3</sup> Smith, born say 1662, is said to have married Elizabeth Mills, daughter of Samuel Mills of Jamaica, who conveyed 22 Jan. 1682/3 to his son-in-law John Smith of Jamaica.

The compiler feels dissatisfied also with the family of John, not having seen sufficient record evidence for the statements usually made concerning this family group. For another John Smith who could conceivably have been husband of Elizabeth Mills, see page 69. The name Elizabeth is strangely absent in the family of John [No. 57, below], her alleged son. We frankly have seen no proof that the following children belong to John<sup>3</sup> [No. 12], but have found no other likely place for them, and tentatively follow the standard pedigree. Other children are sometimes assigned to John<sup>3</sup>, whom we omit because they seem not to belong here and even circumstantial evidence for them is lacking.

Children:

- 56 i. John<sup>4</sup>, b. (say 1685); d. 1722.
- 57 ii. Judith, b. ca. 1689; d. 25 Aug. 1712 ae. 23; m. Henry Ludlam, b. ca. 1690, d. at Jamaica, 9 Oct. 1752 in his 63d yr., son of John and Ruth (Carpenter) Ludlam.
- 58 iii. Phebe, d. before 1723; second wife of Henry Ludlam above.

13. Benjamin<sup>3</sup> Smith, born [say 1664], living at Jamaica in 1723; married (contract dated 3 Feb. 1686), Sarah Gale, daughter of Abel Gale.

Benjamin and Sarah Smith conveyed, 10 Sept. 1723, to their son, Ephraim Smith, weaver. No probate is found, and the family record is incomplete. Benjamin, Ephraim, and Benjamin, Jr., were members of Capt. John Carpenter's Company at Jamaica, 1715.

Children (probably others):

- 60 i. Ephraim<sup>4</sup>, living 1723; not traced further.
- 61 ii. (prob.) Benjamin, d. at Jamaica between 17 July 1758 (will) and 14 Apr. 1759 (probate); m. Mary Thurston, dau. of Benjamin Thurston. Children:
  - 1. Nathaniel<sup>5</sup>.
  - 2. Sarah.
  - 3. Mary, m. Benjamin Wright.
  - 4. Benjamin.
  - 5. John.
  - 6. Henry.
  - 7. Moses, incompetent, to be supported.

15. Samuel<sup>3</sup> Smith, born after 1668, living at Jamaica in 1748; married Hannah Denton, born 5 Aug. 1677, daughter of Daniel Denton.

He conveyed in 1748 to his grandson Waters Smith, son of his "only son" Samuel Smith. He was considered as possible father of a group of children baptized at Jamaica, but they are placed tentatively under No. 9, John Smith of Mespat family (see page 67).

Child:

- 62 1. Samuel<sup>4</sup>, b. ca. 1701; d. between 9 Feb. 1775 (will) and 11 Dec. 1783 (probate); m. Elizabeth Waters, dau. of Anthony and Elizabeth (Whitehead) Waters. Children:

  3. Benjamin, d. at Jamaica between 13 Oct. 1784 (will) and 18 Mar. 1785 (probate).
  4. Israel.
  5. Samuel.
  6. Mary, perhaps m. Stephen Field.
  7. Elizabeth, m. William Forbus.

27. Timothy<sup>3</sup> Smith, born at Milford, 6 Nov. 1669, died there 2 Mar. 1739 in his 71st year (gravestone); will dated 1 Dec. 1739, proved 24 Mar. 1739/40; married Elizabeth Wilkinson, born 30 May 1674, daughter of Edward and Rebecca (Smith) Wilkinson.

38. Ebenezer<sup>3</sup> Smith, born [say 1675], died at Jamaica in 1717; married Clement Denton, who was alive in 1734, daughter of Samuel and Mary Denton. The will of her brother, Samuel Denton, in 1718, named Robert, John, Mary, Abraham, Ebenezer, and Samuel, children of his sister Clement Smith. Clement married second, John Gregory of Norwalk, born about 1676, died 18 Jan. 1751 in his 75th year.

It is not proved that Ebenezer was a son of Wait Smith. He first bought land in Jamaica, 26 Apr. 1704. Wait and Ebenezer Smith sold land together, 20 Apr. 1710, the deed being witnessed by Nehemiah Smith and Nehemiah Smith, Jr. [brother and son of Wait]. In 1712 Ebenezer Smith sold to Increase Carpenter land in the hill division, and about five weeks later Wait Smith conveyed to Carpenter land with the same description as to bounds, apparently the same land. It seems likely that Ebenezer had the land from his father without a formal deed or without placing the deed on record, and that after he sold, Carpenter obtained a deed from Wait Smith to validate his purchase. These facts indicate that Ebenezer was a son of Wait.

Ebenezer was a member of the Jamaica Company in 1715. He died before 9 Oct. 1717, insolvent. In Connecticut [Fairfield District], Abraham Smith, son of "Eben. Smith of Jemeaca on Long island decd" chose "his brother Robert Smith" of Norwalk for guardian, 25 July 1726. On 16 Apr. 1729, "Sam<sup>l</sup> Smith of Norwalk formerly of Jemaco... son to Ebenezer Smith of sd Jemaco decd" chose Nehemiah Smith [No. 49] of Norwalk for guardian.

He called himself of Greenwich in his will, 1 Dec. 1735, proved 7 Jan. 1735/6, and named his "brethren and sisters now liveing at Norwalk viz. Robert Smith, John Smith, Sam<sup>l</sup> Smith, Mary wife of John Gregory."
- 87 iv. Mary, b. (say 1705); m. John Gregory, Jr.
- 88 v. Abraham, b. (say 1708); d. between 19 Mar. 1733/4 (will) and 18 Apr. 1734 (probate); a cooper; m. Elizabeth ——. His will mentioned brethren and sister, Samuel Smith (shop tools); "Robert Smith. John Smith, Ebenezer Smith, and Mary Gregory, and his beloved mother "provided she outlive my honrd Father in Law John Gregory."
- 89 vi. Samuel, b. (before 1715, say 1710).

39. Nehemiah<sup>3</sup> Smith, born at Jamaica, about 1677, died there 18 May 1750 in 73d year (gravestone); married first, Priscilla Everitt, daughter of Nicholas Everitt; married second, ca. 1732, Ann (——) Carl, who died at

New Brunswick, N. J., between 15 Mar. 1763 (will) and 27 Apr. 1763 (probate).

He was heir of his uncle Nehemiah, and became a prominent citizen of Jamaica, where he was Town Clerk many years. His will, 14 May 1750, was proved 30 July 1750.

His will, 20 Jan. 1760, proved 14 Feb. 1764, calls him "formerly of Norwalk now of Ridgefield," and in Ridgefield records he was often called "Norwalk Samuel" to distinguish him from his contemporary, "Milford Samuel."

- 101 ii. Samuel, b. 9 July 1719; d. at Ridgefield, 20 Jan. 1782; will 6 Jan. 1782, proved 12 Mar. 1782, says he is "infected with dangerous disease"; m. 18 May 1743, Mary Northrup, who d. 26 Dec. 1781. Children:

56. John<sup>4</sup> Smith, born [say 1685], died at Jamaica, between 8 Jan. 1721/2 (will) and 18 Apr. 1722 (probate); married Ruth Ludlam, born ca. 1693, alive 1752, daughter of John and Ruth (Carpenter) Ludlam.

This family group probably belongs here, though the compiler does not feel entirely satisfied. The New York Friends' Records, as compiled by Mr. Cox, contain the entry that John Smith, son of the Quaker Jasper Smith of Flushing, died in April, 1722, just a few days before the will of the above John was probated. With a name as common as John Smith, it may be a coincidence that two of the name died at about the same date; or possibly in editing the Friends' records, the death entry may have been attached to the wrong John. This John's will named brethren Nicholas Everitt and Henry Ludlam, and two of the witnesses were Samuel Smith and Nehemiah Smith; these facts and the names of his children impel us to conclude that he belongs to the William of Jamaica family and not to the Quaker Jasper Smith connection.

JOHN SMITH "YE SMITH" OF MILFORD, CONN.

1. John<sup>1</sup> Smith, called "ye smith," died at Milford, Conn., 2 Apr. 1704; inventory of estate taken 28 Apr. 1704; married first, at Milford, 19 July 1665, Sarah Fowler, born [say 1645], died 22 Jan. 1693/4, daughter of Lieut. William and Mary (Tapp) Fowler; married second, probably in 1695, Clemence (Hosmer) Hunt, daughter of Thomas Hosmer of Hartford, and widow of Jonathan Hunt of Northampton.

Clemence was admitted to the First Church, Milford, 13 Oct. 1695, from the church in Northampton; her gravestone, or the reading of it, must therefore be in error in the statement that she died 20 Sept. 1695; perhaps the year should be 1698.

- 2     1. John<sup>2</sup>, b. 11 May 1669; bp. 18 June 1671; d.y.

[Deeds, 3:98.]

John Bartlet all interest in lands late the estate of James Hooker Esq<sup>r</sup> late deceased. [6:273; other deeds of the Smiths show that their wives were daughters of James and Mary Hooker.]

ROGER SMITH OF EAST HAMPTON

1. Roger<sup>1</sup> Smith was of East Hampton, Long Island, by 1655; freeman, Jan. 1657/8, signing by mark; bought John Miller's homelot, Sept. 1662. In 1673 Rebeckah Smith was in trouble with John Hopping, and probably married him, since Hoppin's wife was afterward called Rebecka and Hoppin became responsible for the portions of the Smith children.

David Smith receipted to John Hopping for £35, 14 Nov. 1688, and Samuel Carter discharged Hopping for his wife's portion, 7 Oct. 1689. A Roger Smith entered his earmark, Oct. 1689. In 1690 Samuel Carter conveyed to Roger Smith of East Hampton, land formerly sold to David Smith which Carter had bought back again. John Hoppin sold land in 1697 with the consent of his wife Rebecka. John Hopping conveyed for love, Oct. 1704, to Samuel Carter, reserving life use to himself and wife. In Oct. 1704, John Hopping of East Hampton and Samuel Carter of Elizabethtown conveyed for love to Elizabeth Smith, daughter of David Smith, late of East Hampton, deceased.

"Goody Hoppin" died 11 Apr. 1715 aged about 75, hence born about 1640. John Hoppin died 19 Oct. 1722 aged about 80, hence born about 1642. The ages given are approximate, and the figured dates of birth may be a year or so out of the way. John Hopping first appeared in East Hampton records in Sept. 1672 when he bought land from Peregrine Stanborough. That was when he was about thirty, and only a year before he became involved with Rebecca Smith. It seems reasonably certain that she was the widow of Roger Smith, and that Hoppin thus became responsible for the portions of the minor Smith children who were presumably born between 1660 and 1670 when she was between 20 and 30 years old. She was young enough in 1673 to become mother of Hoppin children, and the first mention of Matthias Hoppin, presumptive son of John, was in 1699 when he witnessed a deed, so he could have been a child of Rebecca.

Roger<sup>1</sup> Smith, then, born ca. 1626, died perhaps about 1670; married Rebecca ———, born ca. 1640, died 11 Apr. 1715. She married second, ca. 1673, John Hoppin.

Children:

- 2     1. David<sup>2</sup>, b. (say 1664); d. before 1704; m. and had:
  1. Elizabeth<sup>3</sup>.
- 3     ii. Tabitha, b. (say 1666); m. Samuel Carter of Elizabethtown, N. J.

Note: Winthrop's Medical Journal calls Roger Smith of East Hampton about 40 in 1666.

Mallory, perhaps the "wife of Joseph Smith" who d. at Wolcott, Conn., 19 Dec. 1776, dau. of Daniel and Abigail (Trowbridge) Mallory. Deeds indicate that this Joseph<sup>2</sup> Smith was of Oxford in 1758 and of Farmington in 1771. Since part of Wolcott was taken from Farmington, we assume it to be this Joseph who married Hannah Mallory and had children, at least:

1. Jeremiah<sup>6</sup>, b. 26 May 1754; bp. 4 Aug. 1754; m. at Wolcott, 1778, Betty Cleveland.

The above three children were entered in Derby V.R. and baptized at St. James' (Epis.) Church, Derby. At the same church were also bp. the following children of Joseph Smith, but we have no proof that they belong to the same Joseph:

WALTER SMITH OF MILFORD, CONN.

1. Walter<sup>1</sup> Smith, of Milford, Conn., died 25 May 1709; will 27 Apr. 1709, proved 6 June 1709; married first, 26 Sept. 1676, Elizabeth Farrand, daughter of Nathaniel; married second, 1 Apr. 1677, Rebecca Prime, who died 7 Dec. 1702, daughter of James and Mary; married third, Mary Brasy, born at Hadley, Mass., 20 Oct. 1677, daughter of Thomas. His second wife joined the Milford Church, 18 May 1701; his third wife, 3 Oct. 1705; and he, 10 Aug. 1707.

There is matter in the court records regarding the birth of the child by his first wife; but though she seems to have died at or soon after the birth of this child, the date of marriage to his second wife is believed to be an error since it would hardly occur in less than two weeks after the first wife's death, and probably the date should be 1678 instead of 1677.

Possibly he was the Samuel Smith who married at New Milford, 30 July 1744, Sarah Wilkinson, baptized at Milford, 13 Nov. 1726, daughter of Lewis and Sarah (Terrill) Wilkinson of Milford and New Milford, who is not mentioned in the will of her father Lewis Wilkinson 1756 proved 1759; if so, there was no surviving issue of this first marriage.

Children, born at Woodbury:

- 45 i. Rachel<sup>4</sup>, b. 21 Nov. 1760; d. 31 Aug. 1783; her will, 14 Aug. 1783, proved 16 Sept. 1783.

She was recommended from the Oxford Church to Goshen, Conn., 5 June 1770; but the family has not been traced further.

Children (incomplete record):

- 50 i. Gideon<sup>4</sup>, b. 16 Sept. 1754.
- 51 ii. Betty, b. 25 Apr. 1757; bp. 19 June 1757, Oxford.

- 61 vi. Amos, bp. 14 Sept. 1777.

(Note: The compiler regrets that the family of Richard Smith, No. 23 above, is left so incomplete; no probate has been found, but the land records of Derby, Oxford, and perhaps Southbury, would probably add to our knowledge of this family.)

26. Samuel<sup>3</sup> Smith, baptized at Derby, 24 Sept. 1734; was of Woodbridge, Conn., in 1804, if our interpretation of deeds is correct. He may be the Samuel Smith who married at Derby, 16 Mar. 1758, Anna Holbrook, born 16 Feb. 1739, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Piggs) Holbrook.

The following children of Samuel, baptized at the Congregational Church, Derby, are introduced here, but without assurance that they belong to No. 26:

- 68 i. Olive<sup>4</sup>, bp. 6 July 1763.
- 69 ii. Comfort, bp. 27 Apr. 1766.
- 70 iii. A daughter, bp. 2 Mar. 1768.

MISCELLANEOUS SMITHS OF STRATFORD, CONN.

Peter Smith, lately of the City of New York, but now of Stratfield, appoints his friend, Mr. Benjamin Peck of New York his attorney, 30 May 1728.

John Smith, currier, "a stranger" that hath for 14 or 15 months sojourned at Stratford, bought 25 Jan. 1727/8 from Edward Lacy and Hannah his wife of Stratfield. The will of John Smith of Stratfield, 8 Nov. 1731, proved 6 Dec. 1731, named son Peter Smith and daughter Charity.

John Smith, son of John and Mary of Stratford deceased, had Daniel Hubbell of Stratfield appointed his guardian, 6 Jan. 1726; and chose Benjamin Cogshall of Stratford for guardian, 14 Feb. 1735/6. He may be the same John who bought a quarter of an acre from Theophilus Nichols, 11 Mar. 1747.

John Smith, "now living in Stratford,"—which sounds as if he were a newcomer—bought one acre on Long Hill from Nehemiah Bennit, 21 Sept. 1756. John Smith conveyed for love, 20 Oct. 1773, a dwelling house to his daughters, Mabel Smith, Anna Smith, Sarah Hubbell, and Easter Smith. Probably this was a deed in lieu of a will by a man of small means.

THOMAS SMITH OF GUILFORD AND KILLINGWORTH, CONN.

Thomas Smith, but with his name crossed out, appears in a list of several who took the oath of fidelity at Guilford, 5 Feb. 1651/2; but he took the oath with others, 11 May 1654. He witnessed at Guilford, 12 June 1656, against a man who had slandered a girl.

There are records of a Thomas Smith at Branford. On 10 July 1656, he married Hannah Nettleton. Thomas Smith of Milford gave a lease, 26 Oct. 1658, on behalf of John Nettleton, son of Samuel Nettleton; and Thomas Smith gave a receipt, 8 Sept. 1659, for his wife's portion, to John Ufford [of Milford, who had married Nettleton's eldest daughter]. His name appears 16 Feb. 1659/60 in connection with branding a horse; and also 16 Feb. 1660/1 in a list of those who drew lots upon the Indian Neck.

Yet on 8 Apr. 1659, "the Court held about thomas smiths estate" entered an inventory of his estate, which amounted to £14.12.4 and included no realty but a great sledge, anvil and "payer of bellows," showing that he was a blacksmith. Debts owing to the estate amounted to £2.15.1; "Thomas Smith Debtor" £20.11.3. He is not called deceased; the estate was insolvent, but actions on the estates of insolvent debtors were rarely taken in those days in the lifetime of the debtor. In none of these records is any distinction made between a Thomas Sr. and a Thomas Jr.

To return to Guilford records, Anna daughter of Thomas and Anna Smith was born there 15 Mar. 1661/2. On 7 Feb. 1660/1, "Thomas Smith haveing sold vnto Thomas Cooke y<sup>e</sup> lot w<sup>ch</sup> was giuen him by the Towne Vpo<sup>n</sup> Condition of serueing the Towne in the Trade of a smith Vpo<sup>n</sup> iust & moderate Termes the space of fīue yeares doth Engage all that lott w<sup>ch</sup> he hath now bought of Benjamin Wright, for y<sup>e</sup> pformance of the said Conditions to the Towne here." To this he signed a fine autograph in the record volume. On 23 Nov. 1662, Thomas Smith acknowledged that he sold land to Thomas Meacock; and the entry is found that by deed dated 24 Feb. 1663/4 Thomas Smith of "Kenillworth" hath sold his home lot in Guilford to William Stone, Jr.

How many Thomas Smiths are concerned in the above transactions, or whether they relate to the same individual, we are disinclined to be dogmatic, and readers may draw their own conclusions. The Thomas Smith at Branford and he of Guilford were both blacksmiths; and it is established that the Guilford man removed to Killingworth.

At Killingworth the following children are recorded to Thomas Smith:

Thomas, b. 1 Feb. 1665/6.
Margaret, b. 6 Mar. 1667/8.
Ebenezer, b. 15 Feb. 1670/1.
Thomas, b. 3 Jan. 1673/4.
Elizabeth, b. 1 Dec. 1676.

Killingworth records list Thomas Smith as owning some eleven pieces of land, two of which were bounded on land of George Chatfield—whose wife was sister of Hannah Nettleton. He sold land as of Killingworth, 4 Jan. 1674/5 and 3 Mar. 1674/5. In Volume 1 of the Land Records, at page 3, is a deed indexed as being from Thomas Smith to Hannah Smith, but the ink has eaten through from the reverse side to such an extent as to render the deed nearly illegible, though it refers to "home lott," "She is to enjoy" and "Item I also give." The date looks like 1666 but is probably later. It may be a deed to his wife in lieu of a will.

On 30 May 1684, Hannah Smith and Samuel Smith of Killingworth sold for £18 to Mr. Richard Carr of Salisbury, Essex Co., Mass., an acreage in Killingworth. Hannah signed with her mark, which looks like a crude HN, and if she was born Hannah Nettleton, she may have been taught in girlhood to write her initials. The deed may be from the widow and eldest son of Thomas Smith, and if so, he had a son Samuel born at least as early as 1663.

The family of Thomas Smith has not been traced further and the above records are given for the benefit of genealogical students who from the records of other places may be able to connect the children of Thomas Smith. A Samuel Smith of Norwich, Conn., bought land in Killingworth which had been the home lot of Robert Williams, 26 Aug. 1690, and was of Killingworth when he sold the same home lot to Daniel Clark, 24 Nov. 1695. For some years no Smiths thereafter are found in Killingworth until the later arrival there of a John Smith from Massachusetts.

RICHARD SMITH OF WETHERSFIELD

Note: The records here given were mainly collected while working on Glastonbury, Conn., families ancestral to Edgar F. Waterman, Esq. of Hartford, Conn., with whom this Smith family intermarried, and are published herein by Mr. Waterman's kind consent.

1. Richard<sup>1</sup> Smith, born about 1589, died at Wethersfield, Conn., after 1669; married Rebecca [?Buswell], who died after 1667.

He was in Wethersfield by 1646, and in 1658 sold a lot to his son-in-law, Matthias Treat. In 1662 he gave to his [youngest] son Jonathan all his real estate in Wethersfield, including his homestead. Presumably he had provided for his other children in other ways, and there is no probate of his estate.

In 1667 Winthrop mentioned Rebecca wife of Richard Smith Senior of Wethersfield, and in 1669 Richard Smith Sen. of Wethersfield, "come 80 years." In 1668 he wrote of the wife of Samuel Buswell of Salisbury, Mass., "She was Mr. Winsley his daughter of Salsbury and Richard Smith of Hockanum is her kinsman." But the relationship seems to have been on the Buswell side, for James Buswell (or Boswell) settled at Hockanum near Wethersfield, where he was treated by Winthrop in 1658; his will, dated 24 Sept. 1660, witnessed by Thomas Edwards and Richard Smith, Jr., gave property to his uncle and aunt and Jonathan Smith, and his land at Naubuck [Glastonbury] to his cousins Richard Smith and Joseph Smith. Children:

  - i. Richard<sup>2</sup>, b. ca. 1617; d. June 1690.
  - ii. Susannah, b. ca. 1624; d. at Wethersfield, 30 Nov. 1692 ae. 68; m. Thomas Standish, b. ca. 1613, d. 5 Dec. 1693 ae. 80. Winthrop in 1658 called the wife of Thomas Standish daughter of "old Rich<sup>d</sup> Smith of Wethersfield."
  - iii. Mary, b. ca. 1627; m. (1) ca. 1648, Matthias Treat, who d. at Wethersfield, 8 July 1662; m. (2) Anthony Wright who d. in 1679; m. (3) John Smith of Wethersfield, who d. 17 Dec. 1683.
- 3
  - iv. Joseph, b. say 1629; d. in 1673.
  - v. Abigail, b. say 1632; m. (1) 1 Sept. 1657, John Adams, who d. at Hartford, 6 Sept. 1670; m. (2) John Betts, of Wethersfield, with whom she moved to Huntington, L. I.
  - vi. Jonathan, b. ca. 1635; d. after 1711.

2. Richard<sup>2</sup> Smith, born in England, about 1617, died at Wethersfield (the part now Glastonbury), June 1690; married Mary Weed, born in England, about 1618, died at Glastonbury, 7 May 1704, aged about 86 (gravestone). He located at Martha's Vineyard, but in 1652 visited Wethersfield where his relatives lived, and wrote from Saybrook, 30 July 1652, to John Winthrop at Pequot [New London], desiring to settle there. As Richard Smith, weaver, he bought land in New London in 1653, and as Richard Smith, Junior, of Wethersfield, sold his New London house and lot, 2 Apr. 1659, to Robert Royce. As Richard Smith of Pequot, Weaver, he was admitted an inhabitant of Wethersfield, 24 Feb. 1656, and granted a house lot.

Winthrop's Medical Journal in 1668 mentions Mary wife of Richard Smith, Jr., of Wethersfield; also John Weed, "50 years of Salisbury in Massachusetts brother to Richard Smith Junior his wife of Hockanum."

In 1660 Winthrop treated children of Richard Smith of Hockanum: Joseph, aged 9, Hester, aged 7, and Benjamin, aged 6; in 1663, Samuel Smith, son of Richard of Hockanum; also in 1663, Beriah, aged 6, daughter of Richard of Hockanum; in 1669, Joseph, aged 18, and Hester, aged 16, children of Richard of Hockanum; and also in 1669, Benjamin Smith, aged 13, son of Richard, Jr., of Wethersfield, "on other side of the great river."

His will in 1680 names his wife Mary; sons Joseph, Benjamin and Samuel; daughters Hester wife of John Strickland, Beriah wife of Richard Fox, and Bethia wife of Joshua Stodder. He was called of Naubuck [Glastonbury] in the probate court entries. The inventory includes the land he had of James Boswell.

Children:

- 5 i. Samuel<sup>3</sup>, b. 10 June 1640 (g.s.); d. 4 Nov. 1732 ae. 92 (g.s.). As Samuel did not marry until 1680, the stone if not erected contemporaneously may err as to birth date and age.
- ii. Joseph, b. ca. 1651; d. at Glastonbury, 6 Nov. 1725 ae. abt. 75 (g.s.), unm. He was chosen Lieut. of the Glastonbury trainband, Oct. 1708. His will, 14 Sept. 1725, proved 1 Feb. 1725/6, names brother Samuel; sons of brother Benjamin, viz. Richard, Jeduthan and Manoh Smith; cousins Dorothy and Dinah Smith, daus. of brother Benjamin; and refers to land bought by father, Richard Smith; Ebenezer Fox appealed.
- iii. Esther, b. ca. 1653; d. before 1725; m. at Wethersfield, 1 Sept. 1676, John Strickland, b. at Dedham, Mass., 17 Feb. 1648/9, living 1719, son of Thwaite and Elizabeth (Shepard) Strickland.
- 6 iv. Benjamin, b. ca. 1655; d. 20 Jan. 1730/1 ae. abt. 78 (g.s.). Winthrop calls him aged 6 in 1660 and aged 13 in 1669; the gravestone statement of age is too high.
- v. Beriah, b. ca. 1657; d. in 1727; m. Richard Fox, b. ca. 1642, d. at Glastonbury, 31 Mar. 1708/9 ae. abt. 67.
- vi. Bethiah, b. say 1660; d. at Wethersfield between 19 and 28 Apr. 1725; m. at Wethersfield, 15 Aug. 1684, Joshua Stoddard, b. 12 Sept. 1648, d. (before 7 Sept.) 1725.

No issue. By verbal will she made a bequest to her cousin Dorothy Smith, dau. of her brother Benjamin of Glastonbury. Distribution was ordered to her brothers and sisters: Samuel Smith, Joseph Smith, Benjamin Smith, Beriah Fox, and heirs of Esther Strickland.

3. Joseph<sup>2</sup> Smith, born say 1629, died at Wethersfield (Rocky Hill), Conn., (before 28 Aug.) 1673 (date of inventory); married Lydia Wright, daughter of Thomas. She married second, by 1687, William Harris of Middletown, Conn.

In 1660 Winthrop stated that Joseph Smith's wife was Lydia Wright, and again in 1667 noted of Lydia wife of Joseph Smith of Wethersfield that "she was Lydia Wright they live over against Nayag" [South Glastonbury].

The probate named the four children and their ages; administration was granted to the widow, Lydia; overseers, Thomas Wright and Jonathan Smith.

Lydia Harris of Wethersfield conveyed, 7 Jan. 1688/9 for love to her son Jonathan Smith of Wethersfield, and if he should die without issue, then to her son, Samuel Smith. She also conveyed to her son Samuel, mentioning her daughter Lidiah Cole.

Children, born at Wethersfield:

- i. Lydia<sup>3</sup>, b. in 1654; m. at Wethersfield, 25 Sept. 1679, Samuel Cole, who d. there 1718, son of Henry and Sarah (Rusco) Cole.

His heirs were named June 1687 as his widow Mary and son Joseph (ae. 3/4 of a year). In 1717, Jonathan Smith, Samuel Smith and Lydia Cole were the heirs. Child:

4. Jonathan<sup>2</sup> Smith, born say 1635, died after 1711; married first, about 1660, Hannah Adams, who died perhaps in 1660, daughter of Jeremy and (probably) Rebecca (wid. Greenhill) Adams; married second, 1 Jan. 1663/4, Martha Bushnell, born about 1644, living 1705, daughter of Francis and Mary (Grombridge) Bushnell.

In 1660 Winthrop records that he treated medically at Wethersfield, "Jona. Smith his wife—she was Hannah Adams daughter of Jeremy Adams." Since the estate of her father fails to mention her or any surviving issue, and her husband shortly married again, she may have died of the illness for which Winthrop was treating her. In 1666 he notes, "Jonathan Smith his wife of Wethersfield she was daughter of Francis Bushnell." The Bushnells brought with them a daughter Martha in 1635, then a year old, but she appears to have died young. Martha Smith of Glastonbury, aged about 61, testified on 13 Apr. 1705.

Jonathan was a deacon of the Glastonbury church; and served as Deputy for that town, nine sessions, between 1699 and 1708.

Jonathan Smith, Sr., of Middletown, Conn., bought 13 Mar. 1682/3 from James Tappin, Sr., of Middletown, land there on the east side of the "Great River"; and on 15 Jan. 1699/1700, "Jonathan Smith sen<sup>r</sup> of Glastonbury" assigned this deed for love to "my son in Law Joseph Long of Middletown." On 8 Feb. 1711, being of Glastonbury, he conveyed for love to his son Richard Smith of Glastonbury, a third of his undivided lands in Middletown; other lands there to his son Jonathan Smith of Middletown, deed acknowledged 24 Apr. 1711; and several pieces of land in Middletown, 1 Apr. 1711, to his son Francis Smith of Middletown, on one of which Francis had lately erected a house.

Enoch Lyman, husband of Dinah, objected to the codicil.

Rachel Smith conveyed 13 June 1733 to "my Brother" Enoch Lyman, land given her by her father, Samuel Smith dec'd. #### SMITH—SMITSEN NOTE

An inscription in the old burial ground in Glastonbury was read by Louis M. Dewey as being that of Capt. Richard Smith, Sr., who died 4 July 1716, aged about 63. The name was read by Lucius B. Barbour as Capt. Richard Smithsen. [New Eng. Hist. and Gen. Register, 60:140; 85:66.] One of those who took the inventory of Lieut. Samuel<sup>2</sup> Hale on 30 May 1712 was "Rich: Smithsen," very plainly written in the original signature.

Among the baptismal records of Rev. Stephen Mix at Wethersfield are found: Elizabeth, child of "R'd Smithsend (not an inhabitant)" on 1 Nov. 1702; and Sarah, child of "R'd Smithsend" on 20 Aug. 1704.

Attempts to place this man in the Smith family of Glastonbury have been fruitless, and there can be no doubt, in view of the records cited, that his name was Smithsen.

SOME OTHER LYME SMITHS

The compiler regrets that the account of the Richard Smith family of Lyme is incomplete and, it is to be feared, imperfect in some details. Yet he feels that the records, many of which so far as he knows have not previously appeared in print, will be of use.

Another Smith family of Lyme originated with George Smith who bought land there 1700 and died 21 Nov. 1724, aged 77 (gravestone) leaving a wife and sons Matthew and George named in his will of 14 Nov. 1724, proved 22 Dec. 1724; Matthew married 25 Feb. 1719, Mary Rogers and left descendants in Lyme.

Mary Lee, born 22 Oct. 1698, daughter of Thomas Lee, Esq., of Lyme, had a son, Richard Smith, to whom Richard Smith (see above, No. 2, i) left by will in 1745 his dwelling house in return for "his kindness to me & my Love to him." He may well be the Richard Smith who married first, 1 Aug. 1745, Abigail Miner (died 10 Aug. 1755), and second, 8 Jan. 1756, Grace Moore of New London, and had thirteen children recorded in Lyme.

Joseph Smith, of unascertained antecedents, married Margaret, daughter of Wolston Brockway of Lyme, and had the following children recorded there, though all but the first and last were born in East Haddam: 1. Elisha, b. 28 May 1721; 2. Benjamin, b. 17 Apr. 1723; 3. Margaret, b. 22 May 1725, m. 1 Nov. 1743 or 1744, her first cousin, Samuel Brockway, Jr., of Branford, who divorced her 1759; 4. John, b. 12 June 1727; 5. Jesse, b. 2 Sept. 1729, d. at Branford by 1756 (adm'n 20 Jan. 1756); 6. Deborah, b. 7 Apr. 1731, m. at Branford, 17 Jan. 1750/1, John Whitney, b. 17 Jan. 1719/20, d. at Branford, 29 Mar. 1805; and 7. Joseph, b. 29 Oct. 1733.

 Born at Eastham, Mass., 23 Oct. 1682; died at East Hampton, Conn., 3 Apr. 1763. For Eastham ancestry and some descendants, see Facts and Fancies of Family History, by Elizabeth Eunice Smith Marcy, Evanston, Ill., 1911.

THOMAS SMITH: New Haven [East Haven], Conn.
New Haven Genealogical Magazine, 7:1619-1645.

JOHN SMITH: Mespit, L. I.
 See, in addition to the account given herein (p.66), "An Excursus into the Smiths of Jamaica, Huntington and Brooklyn," by Rosalie Fellows Bailey, in New York Gen.
 and Biog. Record, 72:8 et seq.

WILLIAM SMITH: Jamaica, L. I.
 5 Nov. 1651, Judith Smith, doubtless mother of the older children, and the births of the sons Thomas and John we feel should be placed earlier than stated. Thomas Smith of Rehoboth sold his house and lot there, bounded on that of William Smith, 16 May 1654, and the autograph of William Smith as witness there appears [Bowen's Early Rehoboth, 3:156].

RICHARD SMITH: Lyme, Conn.
 was perhaps son of Quarles rather than of John, Jr.

GENEALOGICAL BLANK CHARTS FOR COMPLETE ANCESTRY

We are offering the Morse form in sets of 33 charts at $1.50 per set. They are punched with two holes and fit a standard binder. They are folded once. The size is large, with ample room for names, dates and places, but not too large for convenient handling.

The first chart goes to the names of the thirty-two sixth generation ancestors, and in a square at the extreme right a reference number may be entered to each continuation chart used. The continuation charts begin with the sixth generation ancestors and carry all lines back for five more generations, a total of eleven generations.
